Hello! My name is Igor Duibanov, welcome to my portfolio. Here you will find a mixture of my old and new works in a variety of different creative fields. I have successful experience in logo work, packaging, industrial design, advertisement and fashion. Prior to working freelance I was brand developer for a major Vodka manufacturer in Russia. I love all aspects of art and design, anything that allows me to realize my ideas. I also run my own street wear label, OldSkull King.
