

DIANA KOENIGSBERG PHOTOGRAPHY

Diana was born and raised in Los Angeles, California. Her photography projects a fresh feminine perspective, always polished never dull. Utilizing vibrant colors, and carefully choreographed gestures, she photographs her subjects in scenarios that are simultaneously elegant, ironic, and poignant. Diana studied photography at the San Francisco Art Institute, and then received her Bachelors in photography at Art Center College of Design in Pasadena, California.

Diana lives outside Los Angeles, with her husband William and daughter Vivienne. She enjoys the art of eating, drinks her coffee strong.
