

Hannah Carriere

GRAPHIC DESIGNER

Toronto, Ontario

hannah.carriere@gmail.com

Education

Graphic Design - Advanced Diploma
George Brown College

Toronto, ON
Sep 2007 - Apr 2010

Bachelor of Arts - Emphasis Psychology
University of Guelph

Guelph ON
Sep 1999 - Apr 2004

Experience

Freelance Graphic Designer
Hot Docs - International Documentary Festival

Toronto, ON
Jan 2008 - May 2009

Graphic Designer
George Brown College

Toronto, ON
Jun 2008 - Apr 2010

Graphic Designer
Heenan Blaikie LLP

Toronto
Dec 2010 - Present

Recent Creative Accomplishments

Awarded 2nd place for my corporate thesis project which was judged by 22 industry professionals and chosen out of 100+ thesis projects. April 2010

Awarded 1st place in the Director's Design Competition at the School of Design, for a 3-D mailing project that was judged by the City of Toronto Marketing.

Awarded 2nd place for photography and honourable mention for two photographs in the Director's Design Annual Photography competition at George Brown College.

Placed in the top ten in the Canada-wide Student Medal Design Competition, 2008, MASC.

Selected to be part of George Brown College StudioLab where I worked with clients such as the Toronto International Film Festival (TIFF).

Selected to be a visualizer in a brainstorming charrette with the Institute Without Boundaries and YMCA delegates from across the country.

Designed a store display for a mock bookstore that focused on Futurism and held a public opening for it. 2009

Achieved Honour Roll status at George Brown College from 2006-2010.