Bio

Lizette Pena was born in Barcelona and raised in Los Angeles. She started her career in film production where she fell in love with costumes and design. She followed her ambition into fashion and has become a rising star in the styling world. Lizette focuses on her client's brand, vision and look. Styling for magazines such as ELLE, Marie Claire, I-D, In Style, Harpers Bazaar and working with actors and bands for red carpets, talk shows, press tours, album covers and music videos.

Lizette has styled various commercial campaigns for clients such as Nokia, Mazda, Apple and Coca Cola. She has worked with actresses including: Elisabeth Rohm, Christina Ricci, Dita Von Teese and Naomi Watts as well as actors including Liv Shriver, Penn Bagley, Peter Facinelli and Ryan Gosling.

Her European background combined with her love of the classics and her LA inspired youthful sensibilities, sets her style and designs apart. Though her inspiration comes from such diverse places as the paintings of Gustave Moreau, the photographs of Herb Ritts and her fashion savvy mother, Lizette's recipe for success is deceptively simple: she is a collaborator above all else. When working with her iconic clients and brands, she is extremely sensitive to their needs, and brings to their concepts her own imagination and good taste. She seeks to reach people from all walks of life, and her easy nature and warm demeanor allows her the ability to communicate effectively with her clients.

□□ Lizette incorporates what is current with what is classically gorgeous and gives to every client the ability to achieve a style that is fresh, young, and timeless.
